GUIDE AND INVENTORY TO THE PUBLIC INFORMATION UNIT FILE

The Public Information Unit serves as a focal point for the dissemination of information to the press and to the public regarding ongoing police activity. The Unit also serves the Department by providing newspaper clippings and periodic publications to members of the Department.

In order to better index the Units files the Units archives consist of files relating to its administrative functions to the press and its publications to the members of the Department. Subject oriented materials utilized by the Unit have been placed in the Subject File and the newspaper clippings have been placed in the Newspaper Clipping File.

File collections of clippings related to specific members of the Department have been placed in the People File.
